

I am totally opposed to what Chairman Powell is attempting to do by making it easier for the powerful media conglomerates to stifle and smother diversity and plurality of ownership. I would like to see the currently existing safeguards retained and thus prevent the giant media conglomerates from manipulating public opinion.